Learn about foot problems and foot care
Dr. Scott Taylor, DPM, to offer free program

Dr. Scott Taylor, DPM, will present a free program on Wednesday, April 22 from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. at the Estes Park Senior Center, 220 Fourth Street. Drop in, no registration required. This program is sponsored by the Estes Park Medical Center.

Dr. Taylor will discuss the many types of common foot problems, including the types, diagnosis and treatment. The foot can also indicate other serious problems that come as a result of poor circulation, diabetes, or injury.

Dr. Taylor joined Estes Park Medical Center in January of 2010. He received his Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from the University of Reno, as well as a Bachelor's Degree in Environmental, Population, and Organismic Biology from the University of Colorado, Boulder, Colorado. He obtained his Doctor of Podiatric Medicine from the California College of Podiatric Medicine in San Francisco, California and completed his residency at Phoenix Baptist Hospital in Phoenix, Arizona. Dr. Taylor is board certified by the American Board of Podiatric Medicine.
